He grew up in the midst of a family that loved music, however, it was during his adolescent years that his love for music and for singing grew. At the age of 17, he accepted Jesus Christ as his personal Savior and began singing at church services. Daniel received no formal musical training nor does he play an instrument. He attended the Center for the Media Arts in New York City where he learned about the different facets of the music industry. He always dreamed of creating music, but this dream grew as the Lord revealed His vision to him. Daniel set up a small studio in his home and began reading as much as he could about the music industry. He wrote songs and worked on his singing. After years of trusting in God and waiting in obedience, the Lord began opening doors and, before he knew it, Daniel had finished his first CD in the Contemporary Christian genre. - Daniel naci de padres Puertorriqueos en la ciudad de New York, en el otoo del 1972.
