Details: dennis biography Throughout the rafters of a church, the stands of a stadium, or even the halls of a music school, you may have heard such a sweet and jaw-dropping sound from the Singer/Songwriter, Dennis. Known to most of his friends as Denny and also referred to as The Voice, the Central New York native, he was born into a hard-working Italian-American family as Dennis Padula II, named after his father. Dennis has been performing since the age of five with a charisma all his own, boasting a huge and awe-inspiring voice, and stunning audiences with such a flawless nature in his high-tenor range and unbelievable performance ability. He captivates you with talent for commanding the stage and reaches out for you to really feel whatever comes from his steel vocal chords. A trained singer since age 9 including a knack for performing, which he has played to crowds of 35,000 and has left them silent to the sounds of his croon. He continued with training with his college career at Syracuse University, where he learned to open up his mind and challenge himself to write. Dennis' lyrics are almost reminiscent of Michael Jackson and Prince with sex appeal and positive life and love themes. Dennis also delves into a lot of different production including the use of his favorite instrument, the piano, which he has played since age 3. In addition, Dennis works with many up and coming beat producers and songwriters on a lot of his material, however his lyrics are all his own. Coming from his love of Prince, Janet Jackson and many other great young legends of funky R&B/Soul he learned to be universal in his words in order to reach out to the listener and truly inspire them to feel what he feels in his songs. Dennis has a vocal quality that can only be described as a phenomenon, boasting a high tenor range giving him the opportunity to awe you with a belt that can break windows and a falsetto that can make you weep. His inspiration comes from soul star greats like Stevie Wonder, Al Green, and even the new-to-the-game crooner Musiq Soulchild, of which Dennis is a big fan. This All-American yet extraordinary guy can wow you with his personality in life and in his music. Dennis is a virtuoso who uses all of his assets which include a beautiful gut-wrenching straight from the heart and soul voice, to a confident, leave you wanting more performance. He is also a dancer/choreographer giving the opportunity to move to his driving and catchy songs, making him a true triple threat. This kid will keep you on the edge of your seat and he might even make you cry. dennisthevoice\* myspace.com/dennisthevoice dennis@dennisthevoice\*

315.729.8992 PRESS INFO: Dennis Presents Debut CD: Blame It All On Love Up and coming unsigned Artist, Dennis, has independently released his debut CD Blame It All On Love. This eight song EP is full of the trials and tribulations of unrequited love and the hardships in modern day relationships. It is the culmination of a much anticipated debut. The lyrics are entirely written and arranged by Dennis, including the melodies and harmonies, which he was the only vocalist on. He enlisted the talents of producers Floyd the Locsmif of Atlanta, J-Hen of New York and Ess.Kaye of New York with the musical production of most of the tracks. Floyd the Locsmif is especially responsible for the title and fresh and uplifting soul of Cmere a true stand out hit on the album. Dennis' playful lyrics are about giving up a day to just be with the one you love. The beat is so fresh and playful in itself to begin with, that a story like that would be paired with it. It is a true favorite among fans. "Blame It All On Love" the title track paired with Locsmifs beat "King" is Dennis anthem for people who cant seem to get it right with relationships. This beat is a driving hip-hop meets funky fresh R&B sound that can stick in the brain appropriate for such anthemic lyrics. Also working with new-comer producer Ess.Kaye, Dennis gives life to the R&B, neosoul and hip-hop inspired mixes that he produces with his universal and easy to relate to lyrics, giving a personal touch to the raw and groundbreaking sounds of Ess.Kaye. On Charmed, which also features a rap verse by Ess.Kaye, Dennis breaks out his thoughts about flirtation and playing the game of love. Ess.Kayes music for Charmed is a throwback to the sexy R&B/Pop sounds of the nineties. He adds that great flavor of soft soul and edgy pop percussion, which makes the song seem charming in itself. One track that specifically stands out is the last track, Love Me which was produced, arranged, and composed by Dennis. It is a truly remarkable piece, with its warm and raw piano and organ paired with live percussion. It is truly timeless. Dennis vocal abilities truly shine on this track. His lyrics are a cry out for acceptance and to just be loved, unconditionally. Dennis does not hesitate to awe you with his velvet vocal sounds and beautiful movement of his words. He reaches unbelievable climaxes bringing you chills and a heartfelt tear to your eye. His voice is truly a phenomenon and he will make you want that love too. Please take the time to listen to Blame It All On Love and experience the true essence of that great tenor voice that shatters windows and brings warmth to your soul. dennisthevoice* myspace.com/dennisthevoice
