Please check out the latest review at: christmasreviews.com/xsnowywhite.shtml About the Artist: Jeremy Whaley has been playing guitar for 18 years. He uses a distinct finger-picking style emulating guitar masters such as Phil Keaggy and Tuck Andres while drawing from various other guitar genres and adding his own unique flare. Jeremy has a passion for arranging and composing as well as every aspect of the technical side of recording. He has recorded five full length CD productions as well as numerous recital and concert recordings for various artists. He recently spent time recording for the American jazz Institute. And his guitar and arranging was featured on several tracks for Jerrie Anne Fortune's hymn CD. He has played at venues ranging from a March for Jesus in Sapporo, Japan to playing bass while simultaneously being the sound engineer for the contemporary praise ensemble, Light! from California Baptist University. Jeremy enjoys sharing his gift and love of music with others by God's grace and for God's glory. About the CD: The styles vary from song to song but the beautiful and familiar melodies of these timeless classics are ever present to enjoy. This CD is at the same time relaxing and rejuvenating and makes each listener want to decorate their Christmas tree, bake cookies and simply reflect on the holiday season. Enjoy the wonderful guitar stylings of accomplished musician, Jeremy Whaley, with Snowy White: Guitar for the Holiday Season.
