Foot stompin' jazz and blues with some feel-good grooves. James Taylor meets BB King. 13 MP3 Songs

BLUES: Jazzy Blues, POP: Folky Pop Details: I was born in St. Louis, MO. Growing up, I really enjoyed listening to the jazz/blues records collected by my father and brother, gravitating to the guitar at 16 to pick up some of the sounds I liked. I soon was playing with groups in and around the St. Louis area, covering jazz, blues, rockabilly, country, and rock 'n roll. While working as a reporter at a small town radio station north of St. Louis, I began to write songs in the styles I came to love over the years, and after getting a great local response, I came to Los Angeles in late 2002 to record the "Family and Friends" cd.

Fortunately, I hooked up with some very talented people before making this record. Rob Mullins is a grammy nominated piano player who plays some rippin' stuff. Lee Spath (Malt, Robert Cray) handles the drums, and Drew Daniels plays bass. This music is all about creating a good time for everybody. I know you'll enjoy it. ----Kevin
