Prophet: Spider was strongly influenced by Nine Inch Nails and Marilyn Manson as well as other artists such as Radiohead, Orgy and Depeche Mode. 6 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Industrial, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: Music for the dead hours, the fallen stars flickering in the cold glow of their televisions, those unfortunate prisoners of thought and chance and the zombies who are still twitching in the morgue, listening for a siren song to call them away. What we propose is simple: Our generation leads a damn boring life. Sure, we all have our distractions from this sad fact, our drugs of choice. For some of us, the drug is in meaningless social interactions. For others, the drug is in religion. For many, the drug is in television or the internet. Of course, some of us still prefer good-old-fashioned-dope when we do drugs. Or maybe industrial music, if you'd rather? [insert canned laughter] In our search for meaning, we miss a simple fact: we've been lied to. Negative Flood Cycle is an industrial band on a mission. Admittedly, our first and foremost mission is to rock your ass with our own freakish brand of hard core electro-industrial music. Beyond that, though...we would like to help you remember. What it is you have to remember, we will show you in time. The answer isn't simple. It isn't any one thing...it's everything. It's a state of consciousness, mostly, and we're still learning about it ourselves. Along the way, we plan to explore this life with you, for what it is and not for what we've all pretended it to be. Prophet: Spider was stongly influenced by major 'Nothing' label artists, Nine Inch Nails and Marilyn Manson as well as other artists such as Radiohead, Orgy and Depeche Mode. This interesting blend of influences makes for a remarkably unique aural adventure.
