Songwriter Rock-POP 12 MP3 Songs POP: Folkly Pop, ROCK: Progressive Rock Details: This Will Do
Currently only available as downloaded individual songs. Full songs available for your listening pleasure on my site breckalan.com. So here it is. This is the recording that took me over two years to complete. It basically a double album worth of material but I decided to make it two different digestible collections of songs. This Will Do and This Will Do B-Sides. Check out my website for lyrics and credits. I labored intensely on this project but was smart enough to bring in some great people to help. Mark Plati (helped me mix at Looking Glass Studios in NYC). Aaron Johnston (Brazilian Girls) played most of the drums. Robert Ramos played most of the bass. My old recording partner Charles Reeves helped me edit and clean stuff up, as did another great engineer named Sam Crawford. There are some other great guest appearances as well. This is a nice collection of songs and a nice blend of colorful yet organic production. I think youll like it. Check out the samples, listen to the full songs on my site, then buy the songs individually through any of the variety of download services available on line.
