

Mp3 Craig Jackson - Midwest

DOWNLOAD HERE

roots driven pop/rock songs in the vein of counting crows,don henley,vertical horizon,train 11 MP3 Songs

ROCK: Roots Rock, POP: Today's Top 40 Details: "Bio" Craig Jackson, a Los Angeles recording artist, is represented and being shopped by industry veteran Vicky Hamilton. "Last House On The Left", Craig's second release on Green Records, featured the single "Blinded By Love" which received national airplay and Craig made print in the Gavin Report for up-and-coming artists. Craig and his band are putting the finishing touches on a third release for Green Records, tentatively titled "midwest" with Joe Simon, Cliff Brodsky, and Craig producing. The album's first single, "Just a Memory", is already receiving Hot AC and Top 40 radio airplay. Band members are Craig, Lori Lynner, Cary Beare and Jon Mattox. The music is very rootsy and story-driven with lots of vocal harmonies, in the great rock/pop tradition. Vertical Horizon, Counting Crows, Shawn Mullins and Don Henley come to mind. Hope you enjoy this gripping new young band. An accomplished Musician with a distinctive, lyrical style and prolific songwriting abilities, Craig Jackson is bringing back a renewed sense of intimacy to the over changing vein of rock music. Craig's newest record midwest is due out soon,and the first single Just A Memory is getting airplay on 35 chr and hot ac stations in the u.s Craig has played L.A. clubs including molly malones, the gig, the whiskey, the troubadour, the cat club and the kibbitz room at kanter's as well as a number of Circle Of Songs appearances. Craig was nominated for AC Artist of the Year at the L.A. Music Awards at the Beverley Hilton Hotel. Craig has recorded three new songs with Joe Simon from Fiona Apple's band producing, and is garnering industry interest. New songs can be heard at Craig's web site at craigjackson.com

Craig's second release on Green Records is the C.D. Last House on The Left, produced by Craig and Barry Fasman, British Producer of the year in 1985 with many gold records to his credit. The record is full of jangly guitars, soaring harmonicas and the good old piano and Hammond B-3 organ. A very organic and rootsy record. "A cross between Glenn Frey, Jackson Browne and Tom Petty" "This is a Pro all the way around". "Here is a case of an artist that should be meeting with Publishers and A R Reps to discuss career plans" Music Connection Magazine "Jangly Guitars, a laidback rockbeat laced together by a Hammond organ well executed by this Long Beach Artist" Music Connection Magazine "We received a lot of great calls after playing Craig Jackson's C.D., Last House on The Left". Gary Moore, D.J. KLOS 95.5/Los Angeles "A great C.D., one of the best we've received. I like it so much we played five cuts". Bill Hartew, Producer KLOS 95.5 Local Licks/L.A. "I liked this C.D. so much we set up a listening post at the Tower/WOW Records Store in Long Beach". Eddie Gray Tower Records Up Coming Artist. 10 Adds, 2/19-3/5/99, for 1st Single, Blinded by Love. Top 40 Radio. The Gavin Report "We believe in Craig Jackson as an up coming artist. We had over two dozen a/c stations playing the first single against very heavy established artists with NEW Records in the fall and have 10 adds with Top 40 in the first two weeks of new promotion. Craig made print in the Gavin Reports up and coming 3 weeks in a row". Howard Rosen Promotions "We are getting good response at radio all across the country on Gavin stations. Everyone playing Craig's record is looking forward to having a hit with Blinded by Love, the first single. P.D.'s and M.D.,s really like it." Howard Rosen Promotions Craig's song, In a Heartbeat and Waiting in the Wings from his first Green Records release Make it Right were featured in the film Murder Weapon. The songs were recorded with Craig and various musicians from Elvis Costello, Paul Carrach, Mister Mister and Toy Matinee's Bands. Beginning his career in San Francisco, Craig played in local bands and opened shows for George Thorogood, Huey Lewis, David Crosby, Jefferson Starship and Dwight Twilley. The current C.D., Last House on The Left is available at Tower Records in Long Beach, Mail order 12$ includes shipping & handling c.o.d. to greenrecords , on the web at cdbaby craig jackson c/o green records, 2872 rutgers ave, long beach, ca 90815 "Bio" Craig Jackson, a Los Angeles recording artist, is represented and being shopped by industry veteran Vicky Hamilton. "Last House On The Left", Craig's second release on Green Records, featured the single "Blinded By Love" which received national airplay and Craig made print in the Gavin Report for up-and-coming artists. Craig and his band are putting the finishing touches on a third release for Green Records, tentatively titled "midwest" with Joe Simon, Cliff Brodsky, and Craig producing. The album's first single, "Just a Memory", is already receiving Hot AC and Top 40 radio airplay. Band members are Craig, Lori Lynner, Cary Beare and Jon Mattox. The music is very rootsy and story-driven with lots of vocal harmonies, in the great rock/pop tradition. Vertical Horizon, Counting Crows, Shawn Mullins and Don Henley come to mind. Hope you enjoy this gripping new young band. An accomplished Musician with a distinctive, lyrical style and prolific songwriting abilities, Craig Jackson is bringing back a renewed sense of intimacy to the over changing vein of rock music. Craig's newest record midwest is due out soon, and the first single Just A Memory is getting airplay on 35 chr and hot ac stations in the u.s Craig has played L.A. clubs including molly malones, the gig, the whiskey, the troubadour, the cat club and the kibbitz room at kanter's as well as a number of Circle Of Songs appearances. Craig was nominated for AC Artist of the Year at the L.A. Music Awards at the Beverley Hilton Hotel. Craig has recorded three new songs with Joe Simon from Fiona Apple's band producing, and is garnering industry interest. New songs can be heard at Craig's web site at craigjackson.com Craig's second release on Green Records is the C.D. Last House on The Left, produced by Craig and Barry Fasman, British Producer of the year in 1985 with many gold records to his credit. The record is full of jangly guitars, soaring harmonicas and the good old piano and Hammond B-3 organ. A very organic and rootsy record. "A cross between Glenn Frey, Jackson Browne and Tom Petty" "This is a Pro all the way around". "Here is a case of an artist that should be meeting with Publishers and A R Reps to discuss career plans" Music Connection Magazine "Jangly Guitars, a laidback rockbeat laced together by a Hammond organ well executed by this Long Beach Artist" Music Connection Magazine "We received a lot of great calls after playing Craig Jackson's C.D., Last House on The Left". Gary Moore, D.J. KLOS 95.5/Los Angeles "A great C.D., one of the best we've received. I like it so much we played five cuts". Bill Hartew, Producer KLOS 95.5 Local Licks/L.A. "I liked this C.D. so much we set up a listening post at the Tower/WOW Records Store in Long Beach". Eddie Gray Tower Records Up Coming Artist. 10 Adds, 2/19-3/5/99, for 1st Single, Blinded by Love. Top 40 Radio. The Gavin Report "We believe in Craig Jackson as an up coming artist. We had over two dozen a/c stations playing the first single against very heavy established artists with NEW Records in the fall and have 10 adds with Top 40 in the first two weeks of new promotion. Craig made print in the Gavin Reports up and coming 3 weeks in a row". Howard Rosen Promotions "We are getting good response at radio all across the country on Gavin stations. Everyone playing Craig's record is looking forward to having a hit with Blinded by Love, the first single. P.D.'s and M.D.,s really like it." Howard Rosen Promotions Craig's song, In a Heartbeat and Waiting in the Wings from his first Green Records release Make it Right were featured in the film Murder Weapon. The songs were recorded with Craig and various musicians from Elvis Costello, Paul Carrach, Mister Mister and Toy Matinee's Bands. Beginning his career in San Francisco, Craig played in local bands and opened shows for George Thorogood, Huey Lewis, David Crosby, Jefferson Starship and Dwight Twilley. The current C.D., Last House on The Left is available at Tower Records in Long Beach, Mail order 12$ includes shipping & handling c.o.d. to greenrecords , on the web at cdbaby craig jackson c/o green records, 2872 rutgers ave, long beach, ca 90815 "Bio" Craig Jackson, a Los Angeles recording artist, is represented and being shopped by industry veteran Vicky Hamilton. "Last House On The Left", Craig's second release on Green Records, featured the single "Blinded By Love" which received national airplay and Craig made print in the Gavin Report for up-and-coming artists. Craig and his band are putting the finishing touches on a third release for Green Records, tentatively titled "midwest" with Joe Simon, Cliff Brodsky, and Craig producing. The album's first single, "Just a Memory", is already receiving Hot AC and Top 40 radio airplay. Band members are Craig, Lori Lynner, Cary Beare and Jon Mattox. The music is very rootsy and story-driven with lots of vocal harmonies, in the great rock/pop tradition. Vertical Horizon, Counting Crows, Shawn Mullins and Don Henley come to mind. Hope you enjoy this gripping new young band. An accomplished Musician with a distinctive, lyrical style and prolific songwriting abilities, Craig Jackson is bringing back a renewed sense of intimacy to the over changing vein of rock music. Craig's newest record midwest is due out soon, and the first single Just A Memory is getting airplay on 35 chr and hot ac stations in the u.s Craig has played L.A. clubs including molly malones, the gig, the whiskey, the troubadour, the cat club and the kibbitz room at kanter's as well as a number of Circle Of Songs appearances. Craig was nominated for AC Artist of the Year at the L.A. Music Awards at the Beverley Hilton Hotel. Craig has recorded three new songs with Joe Simon from Fiona Apple's band producing, and is garnering industry interest. New songs can be heard at Craig's web site at craigjackson.com Craig's second release on Green Records is the C.D. Last House on The Left, produced by Craig and Barry Fasman, British Producer of the year in 1985 with many gold records to his credit. The record is full of jangly guitars, soaring harmonicas and the good old piano and Hammond B-3 organ. A very organic and rootsy record. "A cross between Glenn Frey, Jackson Browne and Tom Petty" "This is a Pro all the way around". "Here is a case of an artist that should be meeting with Publishers and A R Reps to discuss career plans" Music Connection Magazine "Jangly Guitars, a laidback rockbeat laced together by a Hammond organ well executed by this Long Beach Artist" Music Connection Magazine "We received a lot of great calls after playing Craig Jackson's C.D., Last House on The Left".

Gary Moore, D.J. KLOS 95.5/Los Angeles "A great C.D., one of the best we've received. I like it so much we played five cuts". Bill Hartew, Producer KLOS 95.5 Local Licks/L.A. "I liked this C.D. so much we set up a listening post at the Tower/WOW Records Store in Long Beach". Eddie Gray Tower Records Up Coming Artist. 10 Adds, 2/19-3/5/99, for 1st Single, Blinded by Love. Top 40 Radio. The Gavin Report "We believe in Craig Jackson as an up coming artist. We had over two dozen a/c stations playing the first single against very heavy established artists with NEW Records in the fall and have 10 adds with Top 40 in the first two weeks of new promotion. Craig made print in the Gavin Reports up and coming 3 weeks in a row". Howard Rosen Promotions "We are getting good response at radio all across the country on Gavin stations. Everyone playing Craig's record is looking forward to having a hit with Blinded by Love, the first single. P.D.'s and M.D.,s really like it." Howard Rosen Promotions Craig's song, In a Heartbeat and Waiting in the Wings from his first Green Records release Make it Right were featured in the film Murder Weapon. The songs were recorded with Craig and various musicians from Elvis Costello, Paul Carrach, Mister Mister and Toy Matinee's Bands. Beginning his career in San Francisco, Craig played in local bands and opened shows for George Thorogood, Huey Lewis, David Crosby, Jefferson Starship and Dwight Twilley. The current C.D., Last House on The Left is available at Tower Records in Long Beach, Mail order 12$ includes shipping & handling c.o.d. to greenrecords , on the web at cdbaby craig jackson c/o green records, 2872 rutgers ave, long beach, ca 90815

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: