Details: Born on February 5, 1980 in the island of So Vicente, Cabo Verde, Denis Graa discovered his musical talents at just six years old when he began singing for fun. At eleven, he immigrated with his mother to the Netherlands where he formed an R&B group with two other contenders. It wasn't too long until his talent was noted by the Capeverdean group sensation Splash, becoming later a member. Denis also participated in numerous musical projects such as Lusodance, Venus, and Cap Sol, launching his career into the Capeverdean music scene. After three successful years with Splash, Denis released his first solo album entitled "Sonhos" (Dreams), produced by Upscale Records, an independent production company based in Rhode Island, US. The second album (Hoje e bo noite) also produced by Upscale Records came out in the year 2006. D.G now is ready for is third cd (D.G the album) produced by Nichols for Erogen Music to come in the summer of 2008. This album brings you a fresh Denis Graca with the knowledge of 10 years of music.
