Details: Elaine Greer's interest in music stemmed from a variety of influences, ranging from her love for Broadway musicals as a child to her numerous attempts at punk rock bands as a teenager. Although she began writing songs at a young age, she was secretive about it for years before starting her first active band in 2005, The Bluebirds. The Bluebirds didn't last long though, and thus Elaine Greer the solo artist was born. Years (and several line up changes) later, Elaine now frequently plays with a backing band comprised of some of Houston's finest musicians. At the end of 2008, Elaine realized that lo-fi home recordings could only take her so far, and headed to Master Bedroom Studios to record her first legitimate EP. The 6 song EP, 'Making Plans and Going Places', has been described as a "distractingly pretty collection of folk pop songs". This EP includes appearances by a variety of guest musicians, and was mixed by Steve Christensen from SugarHill Studios/Mastered by Allen Corneau from Essential Sound.
