" Listening to Greg Williams latest recording, Caterpillar is not like listening at all. It's like crawling into silky sheets with a down comforter against your head, like riding slowly thru the desert at dusk, like feeling that sensation you get after a plane takes off and you are suspended above the earth on air alone. There's "Love is Everything", which is featured in the independent film "Siblings". Another standout is the ethereal "Milk", a hauntingly beautiful melodic piece that sounds not of this world, as if sung by someone on another planet or from beyond the grave." - Savannah Morning News " ... a performing songwriter to watch..an overnight sensation in the making?" - Performing Songwriter " ... edgy, bluesy, instantly likeable folk - rock. Superb!" - Atlanta Press "... Why Greg Williams isn't insanely popular on a national level is one of the many great mysteries of the local Savannah scene. With a slightly-raspy-yet-smooth voice and sincere folk ballads, Williams has a detailed past generously sprinkled with big names. He's performed with acts like John Mayer, Edwin McCain and Shawn Mullins, but we all know he's way better and more deserving than all of them. " - District(the Student Voice of the Savannah College of Art and Design) "... Edgy blues and classic - rock inspired jams mark the best moments of this limber unit's sets. Williams has long been a towering presence on the Savannah music scene. He's one of the finest and most prolific contemporary pop songwriters we have."
