Details: The album released by Min. Darnell Williams (of the Williams Singers, of Indianapolis, IN.) with a backing ensemble. MIN. DARNELL WILLIAMS IS A DEZNELL MUSIC GROUP ARTIST. MIN. DARNELL WILLIAMS (aka Buster) is a young minister of the gospel, husband, father, musician, producer, a member of The Williams Singers, and the CEO of Deznell Music Group. Being born to a father (Rev. Charles D. Williams) who was a preacher, singer, songwriter and musician, and a mother who was also a singer and quartet bassist, Darnell was endowed with a great deal of vocal, instrumental, and creative talent at a very young age. Even at the age two he could hear harmonies and lead songs. By the age of three he was brought in as an added feature to his father's quartet group The Melody Kings (of Indianapolis, Indiana) to lead a song that most quartet lovers in Indianapolis still identify him with; "OPERATOR". As he grew up he developed a very strong love for music. By the age of 8 he was playing drums, the guitar (lead/rhythm) at 10, the bass at 12, and the organ at 15. He was the first drummer for The Williams Singers; at that time called The Williams Family Singers. He then took over the lead guitar position from his father. By the time Darnell was 16 he was more interested in choirs and contemporary groups than traditional quartets. He started playing bass and keyboards for his highschool gospel choir under the leadership of Prof. Nathaniel Truedell. Prof. Truedell exposed him to the professional side of gospel music; which allowed him to be around other professional musicians. He was also exposed to sequencers, drum machines, and multitrack recorders, during this time. Prof. Truedell exposed Darnell to the basics of the recording industry as well. With the musical gifts God had given him and the knowledge he'd gained during his highschool years, Darnell decided it was time for him to try his hand in the recording industry. However, God put it on hold because Darnell's focus wasn't on winning souls but rather, making money. God had called Darnell into the ministry at the age of 12; although he had preached his very first sermon at age 8. Darnell was on fire for the lord; preaching at his father's church as well as others, and singing with The Williams Family Singers. However "Looking at others he lost his direction;" he left preaching alone for a while and went out to make it big in gospel. After God renewed his mind and gave him direction, he began focusing on souls as well as his own personal relationship and time with God. God placed it on his heart to start a recording label; along with his brothers. That label would be called Deznell Music Group. Through his preaching ministry, his record label, The Williams Singers, and his own solo projects, Darnell finds the avenue he needs to reach the hearts of men, women, boys, and girls everywhere, and let them know of a true and living Christ.
