People who are interested in Rosemary Clooney Martina McBride should consider this download. Details: Rhonda has lived in Texas most of her life. She has a music degree from University of Texas at Arlington, and enjoys performing country, standard jazz, musical theatre, traditional pop and classical. She has a classical piano background, and taught piano for a few years. In the past, she performed on the Opry circuit, including The Johnnie High Country Music Review, Grapevine Opry, Mesquite Opry and Cross Timbers Opry. She has also sung in many local clubs and establishments in the Dallas/ Fort Worth area. Due to her family's needs, she left the music industry for a few years, and upon her return, decided to jump in with both feet. She has recorded two CDs to test the waters; one of them, "Christmas Classics", receiving a Grammy nomination. That CD also includes her original composition, "The Best Gift". At this time, she mostly sings at private parties with her background tracks, but is currently seeking other musicians to accompany her. Tags: pop
