Details: The Wizard Rock movement is a growing phenomenon in the United States and beyond. As of 2008, there were approximately 480 Wizard Rock bands in existence and that number continues to expand. Wizard Rock is, by definition, music performed and written as a tribute to J.K. Rowlings creation, Harry Potter. Many of the bands donate to causes that are near and dear to their hearts, such as the genocide in Darfur or to literacy programs for young people. Robb (Robbo) Zelonky is no different. Before becoming a part of the Wizard Rock movement, Robbo, a Parents Choice Gold Award winning songwriter and entertainer, had performed childrens concerts in hundreds of cities across the USA. He branched into the Wizard Rock movement for two major reasons: One, he and his three kids love Harry Potter, and two, Robbo wished to fight the disease that has plagued his mother for most of her life. As of this writing in 2008, Robbos mother has suffered from Multiple Sclerosis for 38 years. J.K. Rowlings mother was taken by the same disease. After taxes and overhead, 100 of the proceeds from the sale of this CD will go to fight Multiple Sclerosis. 100 of any performance fees derived as a result of this music (also after overhead and taxes) will go to that enterprise as well. He hopes you love the music and that you join him in the fight. nationalMSSociety.org.
