Hot. A Spring Break Blockbuster. Every female gotta hear this one. From the Filthy Nasty (Mr. Jacksonville) put his pimping down. 6 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Rap, HIP HOP/RAP: East Coast

Details: E. Toriono Newkirk (Shot Out) born in Jacksonville, Florida. As a toddler, he traveled the road and began his training the music business. In 1978, his stepfather, Wesley Phillips, Sr., of "The East Coast Horn Section" was hired by The Jackson Five to accompany their entourage on the road for 4 1/2 years. This is just the beginning of what would become of Shot Out. In 1993, Shot Out began recording, entering, and winning a number of talent shows across his region of the country. He was inspired to release a Maxi single in 1998 to test his local market in "Filthy Nasty Florida" and also to get a response on his music. The Maxi Single was entitled "Shot Out" and featured his first two songs recorded which were: "Shot Out" and "It Is". He recorded a number of songs and submitted a demo to an Independent Canadian Label called Cyber Music. The A&R selected his Reggae influenced track "Bite the Bullet" which yielded over 30,000 units sold in Canada. Shot Out released his first album "Escaping the Crab Pot" in 1999. In this album, he ensured that his marketing strategies included CD's, t-shirts, bandannas, and other Shot Out paraphernalia. Through those marketing efforts, over 2,300 copies were sold. In the spring of 2000, Shot Out began, working and recording his sophomore album "The Second Dozen" which is part two of his first product and has sold 3,200 copies. He also recorded, pressed, and sold 1,500 copies of a compilation album in the spring of 2002 entitled "The Southern Hemisphere". February 2004 marked the completion of his 3rd recorded album entitled, "The Braille Album". He has sold 1,000 copies of his new single "What's Your Pimpin Like" and his state anthem "Florida Star". Shot Out has been networking and promoting his talent. Some of his accomplishments include opening shows, for big names in the music industry such as: Notorious B.I.G, Snoop Dogg, Ludacris, Too Short, Lil Kim, Foxy Brown, 69

Boyz, Mad Lion, Wu Tang Clan, Poison Clan, Bone Thugs in Harmony, Goodie Mob, Out Kast, Craig Mack, Juvenile, Cool Breeze and YingYang Twins; just to name a few. Shot Out is talented and accomplished Artist, Songwriter and Producer. He is also currently the Director of Marketing and Promotions for Bungi Entertainment.
