Details: "Buffalo In the Snow" In November of 2005, I had a vision as I drove across the backroads of middle Georgia. Out of a picked cotton field, a herd of Buffalo crossed in front of me. From that point, this album emerged from the depths of that vision. As I worked in Florida, finishing music for "Blue Sun", my wife Phoenix, commissioned the artist to begin what would become the artwork on the cover of this album and replayed my vision. "The Artwork Complete" As I viewed the completed art, I knew that meditation and peace would be the theme of the music to come. Looking closer I began to wonder, "As it is for most, is the breath of life we hold so dear the same for the Buffalo?" Standing among the snow drifts, a frozen lake, in the dead of winter...alone...with calf or not? "The Result" For me this music tells a story of birth, life experiences, death and rebirth. It is a gift of love in the world that I live within. I leave it to you to feel the music and to interpret what fits into your own life. I thank you, Glen Clayborn 2006 Total Play Time:59:58
