The style of music is contemporary inspirational gospel music for audience range of all ages 10 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, KIDS/FAMILY: General Children's Music Details: The Campbell Girls are a group of multi-talented sisters that have been performing together for the past five years in the entertainment business. The Campbells started their singing career in the church, where they electrified the audience with their heavenly voices singing gospel spirituals. The girls were always looking to perform and compete relentlessly to display their God gifted talent. In 2006 The Campbell Girls won the worldwide 2006 Gospel Newsome Award for best children, choir or group for cd of the year. Gabrielle, the oldest of the three sisters began playing the piano at the age of nine. She learned to read sheet music, played the flute in the school band, and continues to make great stride. This year Gabrielle has started an acting career in school with drama classes. She is active in school chorus and the gospel choir at church. This year Gabrielle is the class president. Ashley, the middle child is extremely gifted with an ear to comprehend music. Ashley plays the piano and flute. Previously, she sang at her sixth grade graduation where she did an outstanding job. This year she will play the flute in the school band and sing both in the school and gospel choir. Ashley is also very athletic where she flourished as a big time hitter for her softball team last year. This year Ashley has been selected to participate in Southeastern District Chorus for her school. Victoria, the youngest of the three sisters has many gifts. Victoria started playing the bass guitar and the drums at the age of seven and has shown herself to be skillful.. Not to mention she is an outstanding basketball player who made the All Star team her first year playing the sport. Victoria helped her team win the champion ship game scoring 30 points. This year Victoria was chosen to play bass guitar in the Jr. High city wide jazz band. The Campbell Girls come from a well rounded home where both their parents work in the field of education. The Campbell Girls are not here asking for anything, but to give something in return. The very gift that God gave them, and that is singing. Their talents will take the music industry to that level where it has been waiting to go for so many years. The joy and happiness that these three young ladies will bring, is priceless.
