Soothing anointed delivery of musical arrangements including church hymns, gospel classics and contemporary Christian Rap creations. 9 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, GOSPEL: Traditional Gospel Details: Wrightouch Entertainment released "It's My Time" by Gospel recording artist Trecinda Joyce Payne. This debut CD has a variety of selections that includes church hymns, traditional gospel, and Christian Rap musical arrangements. Trecinda began singing in local churches while traveling around the state of North Carolina with her mother. As she grew older, Trecinda became very well known for her captivating voice and natural ability as a psalmist throughout local churches. Upon graduation from High School, Trecinda continued her singing vocation in Boston where she attended Elma Lewis African Culture School in Boston, Massachusetts. Trecinda spent a number of years perfecting her craft and in the process worked with various artists and performers including Jerry Butler, The Jackson Five and the group Skyy. God led Trecinda back to Raleigh, NC where she gave her life to Christ and a fresh new career and ministry in song erupted. Trecinda became a member of Word of God Fellowship Church and became internationally known through the church's expansive television ministry. Trecinda Joyce Payne is an anointed psalmist and woman of God whose spirit of love will reach into the depths of your soul. Young and old alike will be able to appreciate and enjoy the songs on this project as they are comforted by her soothing delivery of traditional sound or as they pat their feet to her contemporary creations. In essence, everyone who listens to this CD will be totally blessed regardless of their age, gender, race or color.
