WooTube is a video player. Need we say more? Based on the same style that has made Busy Bee & Fresh News so popular, WooTube offers you some amazing multimedia goodness. Why not get cracking straight away All you need is a camera, a nice smile and obviously this theme! Even though it was designed to show videos, this theme can be used for multiple purposes like a photo gallery, CSS gallery, portfolio and even personal blog. The options allow you to disable the latest post to get that gallery look, and you dont even need to add videos to your posts, so they will just be plain simple posts. Unique Features These are some of the more unique features that you will find within the theme: Super-easy functionality to create video posts; Videos are resized automatically and WooTube even publishes the embed code for your readers; Integration of the WP-PostRatings plugin for some added fun & interactiveness; A completely widgetized sidebar with custom widgets included in the theme packaging. No third party widgets required; and 7 amazing colour schemes to choose from! NEW! Optional homepage layout (see update info) gives endless possibilities for usage of this theme e.g. gallery, portfolio or blog.
