Hazard, talented linebacker for the Alexandria Griffins, is known for hard hits, record-breaking sacks, fast living and engaging in unconventional relationships. During a week off from football, he travels to Dare, Nevada, for some R and R and to hook up with a hot woman or two. When Avery, his agent's sister, walks into the club wearing a wicked red dress, he's not immune to her delectable charms. After several tequila shots, Avery invites him to her hotel room for a week of hot sex with no promise of commitment, and he gladly accepts. Of course they don't expect their brief sexcapade to quickly turn into love-nor are they aware that someone dangerous has been stalking Avery's family for years. Someone who's about to strike. When Avery disappears, Hazard might lose the best thing he's ever had. But not without a fight.
