Your Sunday morning record. 100 acoustic. 13 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, FOLK: Traditional Folk
Details: "Woody Guthrie meets Tom Waits!" - Cookie Marenco "A hymn to and a cry for the American West..." -Brian Doyle, Portland Magazine "Much like an archetypal ski bum, Brennan's songs flee from structure, full of asymmetrical verses and irregular line lengths, and avoiding rhyme like it's avian flu. Brennan's clearly following the speak-singing storytelling style of Greg Brown or Tom Waits...If you can't afford your own mountain cabin, this album will take you right there." -Willamette Week  Cut live at 8500 ft in a log cabin, at the top of Little Cottonwood Canyon in the Wasatch Rockies. This record is 100 Acoustic. No headphones. No overdubs. Only mics. Little Cottonwood is an aural collection of short stories. This is your Sunday morning record. Shortly after Telluride Bluegrass Festival selected Brennan as first alternate in their songwriting competition, he headed to Alta, Utah to cut "Little Cottonwood," and is releasing it nationally in a grassroots partnership with Berkeley-based Clif Bar, as a part of the Keep It Simple philosophy of their new Clif Nectar bar. Via 1 For The Planet, 1 of album sales will benefit the Organic Farming Research Foundation based in Santa, Cruz, CA. For more information, please visit Three Pin Productions at threepin.org
