Details: The much anticipated solo CD from Greg Irwin is finally available on CD Baby. Featuring traditional Japanese "Doyo" songs performed in English, this CD will warm your heart. Greg's beautiful voice and his award-winning and sensitive interpretation of these classic songs will make you want to hear more. Doyo are traditional Japanese Childrens Songs that appeal to all age groups. It is believed in Japan that they represent the heart and soul of the Japanese people. Greg Irwin, an American singer-songwriter, has translated and written English lyrics for over 100 of these classic Japanese songs. This is the original recording of Gregs English translations of eleven of Japans most beloved and popular songs along with three original songs. Greg Irwin received the first ever Doyo Culture Prize in Japan, along with the Popular Music Doyo Grande Prix. In the United States, he was a winner of the John Lennon Songwriting Contest. He first performed these traditional Japanese songs at Lincoln Center in New York City and has performed Doyo in concerts all over Japan. The songs on this CD have been featured on several NHK Television and Radio Programs in Japan. All Japanese are familiar with the songs today, and most people have a great affection for them. They are considered to be an important element of Japanese culture. Greg Irwins superb English lyrics offer outsiders a rare glimpse into the sensitivity of the Japanese spirit which is in need of nourishing today. CD comes with both beautiful lyric notes in English and the original Japanese. Greg Irwin- Vocals and Lyrics David Chester- Piano and Arrangements Yoshi Kikkawa- Cello Greg Irwin
