He was born in McCrory, Arkansas where he was raised by his loving Grandmother his aunts. He felt the Lord calling him back then, but he, like a lot of us began running from the Lord. He was constantly in out of trouble until he became a burden on his Grabdmother, he was then sent to St. Louis Missouri in 1984 to live with his Mother. He began to live a life of chasing girls, drinking, hanging out at clubs and running with gangs. He joined the U.S. Army in 1989 was stationed in Fort Benning, GA on Kelley Hill as a part of the original 197th Separate Infantry Brigade, Unit 441 Field Artillery Battalion. He was sent to Saudi Arabia, where he fought in Desert Storm, Shortly after he returned he began drinking heavily and became very rebellious. He began rapping in Clubs talent shows with some of his friends, Michael Tyler ( A.K.A Mystikal), chopp, D.J. Slice, Total Impact, Swing Team, Ice Billy, D.J. don, ACE others. A few years later he began to see his life on downward spiral, he moved bact to St. Louis, Mo where he got in more trouble. He moved to Saginaw, MI with some longtime friends began gang bangin chasing women, he eventually turned to drugs as an escape from reality of the fact that his life was going nowhere. He was shot at many times but by the grace of God he survived it all, he finally stopped running and asked the Lord into his life in June of 1996 living in a rooming house in his small room that he called home. He has since accepted his calling as a Gospel Rap Minister, filled with the Holy Spirit Blessed with the anointing of God. He's touching the hearts of many, from 5 years of age to 65 years of age. He's full of compassion committed to winning souls to christ.
