Here is the true hip hop sound of the wild wild west. It's the infusion of Hip hop and Classic rock to break you out of the normal rut that modern hip hop is in. 11 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Alternative Hip Hop, HIP HOP/RAP: West Coast Rap Details: Policy Gang Music presents the Policy Gang, a motorcycle gang style rap group consisting of a bunch of wild cats such as Harold "Scrap" Fretty as Joe Young, Richie Law as Janky Stash, Kris Ransom as himself, Deleon Adams as Slow Willie, Patrick Lee as Goon Davis, Anthony Elam as Loc Man, James Hooper as Eric James, and last but not least, Aaron as Crunch. This Southern California based west coast group truly represents the Wild, Wild West with their laidback, cool, psychedelic sound. This group of talented rappers ride the back of not only choppers, but also funky, original rock style beats produced by Harold "Scrap" Fretty, who is also known for co-producing funky tracks such as "Only God Can Judge Me" for the late great 2Pac Shakur. The producer of this group has studied hip hop and legendary blues and rock that he has infused together with the help of the Lord's grace to make this new style of hip hop beyond extraordinary. Most of the music production on this album is created with real instruments such as the bass guitar, electric guitar, and the keyboard. You can hear the difference in the music. The debut album entitled, Time Traveler, takes the listener on a journey through the past and future and from the ghetto to the suburbs. Their fast growing number of fans have not been disappointed. The Policy Gang truly is the new sound in hip hop that the west coast has been waiting for. The Policy Gang.
