Songwriting at its finest This CD has been getting great reviews and currently on one of Denver's top radio stations. Catching, well-crafted songwriting with melodic and delicious guitar....a true talent. 11 MP3 Songs ROCK: Modern Rock, ROCK: Jam-band Details: If you haven't caught them at their local shows-or heard their songs being played on 99.5 The Mountain-you are missing one of the best performing bands in Denver! Founded by its namesake, the release of the Scott Julsen Band's new CD, Lost Found, marks Scott's return to Colorado following a 10 year run in Los Angeles. It was there he honed his guitar and songwriting skills working with several bands and artists as a session player and becoming a top on-call studio and sit-in guitarist. Complementing Scott, the band features drummer Don Casler, bass player Brad Craig and Russ Green on guitar. This line up gives Scott what he had been missing-a way to rebuild a new and fresh sound. The Scott Julsen Band plays mostly original material with a small arsenal of cover tunes that include everything from jam bands to cutting- edge bands. Theirs is a diverse sound driven by a core of dual guitars matched with a great rhythm section, and peppered with violin, keyboards, and harmonica. You will frequently find special guest artists sitting in with the band. The live show is built for each individual venue ranging from solo acoustic and/or percussion to full-blown jam sets. Hot Selling/Marketing points: - SJB constantly playing to support CD - Current, consistent radio play - Radio friendly songs - Diverse live show for any venue - Awe-inspiring guitar - Artistic songwriting - Rave reviews
