Details: Steve Dunn, a singer/songwriter from Connecticut has a style described as a combination of rock/pop/contemporary with a twist, combining acoustic and electric pop with country/rock influences for a refreshing style and sound. Dunn creates compelling music with a calming vibe that is sure to connect with anyone and everyone. Dunn, this low-key rocker, released his debut album, Ok to Drive in late 2004. Comprised of eleven original songs, the CD is soft-toned and smartly lyrical, yet with definite rock flair. The follow up 2007 release was a 5 song EP entitled Great Escape that was well received by his loyal following and helped him to secure new fans while receiving both commercial and college radio play. The new 2009 release is a 5 song EP entitled Plan B which is sure to please current and new fans with its polished radio friendly sound. Dunns songs are a diverse brew of tuneful guitar work and smart songcraft. Deceivingly simple, with universal stories of love and loss, Dunn surprises you with his wry, witty word play and memorable melodies. His versatile voice easily compliments his variety of styles. Steve Dunn is a gifted and versatile musician whose abundant talent and engaging performances have earned him a loyal local and growing national following. Fans describe him as a serious musician with a playful sense of humor. You can see Steve Dunn perform live at one of his local shows, or hear his unique mix of rock/pop/contemporary music on his CDs Ok to Drive, Great Escape and Plan B.
