What Makes A Man The featured track on this MySpace page, What Makes A Man, has been sent to various FM radio stations throughout West Virginia, Ohio and Wisconsin aaradiopromo.com. So call your local radio station and request Trey's new single, What Makes A Man! Trey loves working with other songwriters and is ALWAYS writing songs. "As a songwriter, it's not like your job or what you do, it's WHAT WHO YOU ARE as an individual." Trey has been playing the Central Kentucky bar scene for about 6 years - performing in bars such as Shamrocks, The Sterling Saloon, Regatta (Captain Jack's Pier), and Campus Pub. Born in Richmond, Virginia, raised in Mt. Sterling, Kentucky and a graduate of Eastern Kentucky University, a lot of Trey's songs reflect life around the Central/Eastern Kentucky region. From Cruisin' town to partying at the lake, his songs reach the local audience, national audience, and anyone else who grew up in a small town. Songs about love going good and love going bad also make their way onto Trey's new CD. Buy it! You won't be sorry. Trey enjoys going to the lake, snow skiing, playing golf, betting on the ponies at Keeneland, watching football UK basketball, fishing, spending time with family and friends, and brewing the occasional batch of home brew. For booking or merchandise info email TreyEarnhardt1@yahoo.com, or write to 441 Becky Place, Lexington, Kentucky, 40517.
