"Tye Dompier was the man that every girl wanted: from the white columns of his family's mansion to his handsome face, he had it all, money, charm, a wild light in his ice-blue eyes. He charmed pretty Angie Thornton the day she moved to Moon Lake, Mississippi, and set eyes on him. But Angie was young and innocent - too young to get involved with a man as serious as Tye. So she refused his advances - and learned the hard way that refusing Tye Dompier was a dangerous mistake. On the shores of the languid, fog, shrouded lake, Tye came to stalk Angie - and when he trapped her, there was no one to hear her cries. And no hope of Justice in a county his family had run for generations."Author: Mosiman, Billie Sue
