Details: Since their conception about one year ago, Catchpenny has demanded some serious attention from the right people with their high energy shows and a devotion to music that will leave the crowd on their feets wanting more. Their first full length release, A Chance For A Lifetime, features 11 tracks that range from rocking you off your seat to soundtrack-type music that begs to be listened to again and again. Produced by Michael Bland (Prince, MANDY MOORE, Soul Asylum), and co-produced and engineered by Brian Johnson (Christina Aguilera, JOHN MAYER, Tori Amos, Lifehouse, Five For Fighting, ALANIS Morrisette, Craig David, many more). The album is a fusion of rock and pop that burns with precise melody and harmony, leaving the listener humming the tunes and helplessly singing along. Over the course of their touring, Catchpenny have had the opportunity to share the stage with many chart-topping acts including Big Head Todd and the Monsters, The Gin Blossoms, and Jeff Healey.
