In the tradition of Joni Mitchell, kd lang, Stevie Wonder, and Rufus Wainwright, Jonathan Dalin presents a hypnotic collection of piano based jazz/pop songs. This is music to get you pondering and feeling some feelings. 10 MP3 Songs POP: Piano, URBAN/R&B: Soul Details: Jon Dalin was born in Detroit, Michigan. Coming from a large family of singers and musicians, his childhood was filled with his parents dueling violins and his sister's piano. He spent his school years studying music performance, playing violin in the Metropolitan Youth Symphony, singing in concerts, and picking up an assortment of instruments. In college, he hung out with a group of gifted singers and musicians who inspired him to begin songwriting. Within a few years, his first collection of songs was premiered in Ann Arbor, Michigan in a dance and music performance entitled "Two Worlds". The following year, he received commissions to compose music for dance. "Cities that you seek" is his first collection of recordings. Soulful and textural, warm and inspired, these ten songs explore themes of wonderment and desire, beauty and uncertainty. Jon currently resides in New York City.
