Details: For all those out there who think D'Shon is getting played by his management that is fine not once have we bashed his name nor are we about to start. So for those who dont know the whole situation please keep quiet. D'Shon knows what his problem is and we do as well. So with that said continue to support him as we do and we all can move on with our lives. We have went far and beyond trying to help him and it is not our fault if no one wants to sign him we are not the artist we can do but so much. Thanks, Chokehold Entertainment!!
