Details: Hard Bargain, based in NYC, is made up of folks from New York City, Memphis, Atlanta, No. Carolina, Connecticut. We play the music we love listening to, soulful blues, bluesy soul, etc. Here's what some folks have said about a few Hard Bargain recordings: Pretty Woman Blues: "Yeah...this track rocks. I was tapping my foot and nodding my head. The first words out of my friend were oh hell yeah! Awesome track, man." -Magick_Girl_311, Concord, CA "Sweet. Awesome blues song. 60's blues rock like Canned Heat only better. I really loved the horns too." -WalkerFee, Chatham, NJ "I think this is a great blues band. I really like the vocalist a lot." -soundman240, Columbia, MO "Great vocals. Good blues track. Blues the way it should be!" -GreekGirl, Leonia, NJ Tramp: "Mmmm...Mmmm...Gooooooood. You can't hear this music and not listen. Lead vocals excellent, rhythm great. Loved it." -freeziaroyale, Cherry Creek, NY "I remember "Tramp" from the mid-to-late 60's. This is a good version of that song...especially the horns and the vocal. I wanna hear this band in a club!" - jimmcinnes, San Diego, CA "This song was great! It had everything I was looking for in a blues song! ....great rhythm that made me want to get up and dance, good singer and sax solo! I am going to look this band up to get more of their music!" -McDevitt1080, Asheville, NC I Wouldn't Treat a Dog: "Groovy song! I really liked the bass line, smooth player. Great vocalist, very distinctive, great pitch and control, really like the grit you throw in there. Great song, enjoyable to listen to. -Greg Huage, Brooklyn Park, MN "Nice R&B feel. Feels like a classic 60's soul tune. Vocals are perfect for this style. Nice arrangement. Rhythm section sounds good. Tight bass and drums." - murff, Nashville, TN "Very hot blues tune. I really like the way the drums and bass drive this tune. The bass has some really cool melodic runs. The horns do a fine job filling in the gaps. The lead vocals are strong and soulful for a blues tune." -cfbassman, Columbus, OH Room 244: "WOWWWW!!

....this song is AWESOME....I love this song. Reminds me of Ry Cooder, Wilson Pickett Taj Mahal.
Vocals sound too good to be listening to them on Garageband, they sound like they could be coming straight from the Atlantic label. This band should have made it big a long time ago. Not only will I buy this song if when it comes out, but I will recommend it to just about everybody I come in contact with. Best song I've heard by far. You got my top marks." - Im_a_Rocker, Swindon, Wiltshire, UK "Otis Lives....great job all around. Excellent vocals, nice sax, great rhythm section, authentic 60's sound, a pleasure to listen to." -realex, Brentwood, NY "Mmmmmm-Memphissy! This sounds the way I remember true R&B. Great groove overall. The lead vocalist is quite good, lots of genuine soul sound to him. The harmonies are great too." -nealdbluesman, Raleigh, NC "Soul!! Great song, the band is tight, the vocals are great, and it's got a great groove. What else can I say?" -Annastasia, New York, NY "Feels So Good...Nice motowny sound ala sunnyland slim or the blues bros. Great job on the lead voc and sax. Vocals were right up front in the mix-I like that. This one is a winner!"-WhiskeyRichard Grand Island, New York
