Original Funky, Folky, Pop. Songs range from deeply introspective to richly orchestrated and lifting to the spirit. 8 MP3 Songs POP: Folky Pop, FOLK: like Joni Details: Described as funky, folk, pop, Jackie Martino's music is entirely original both thematically and musically. Her songs range from deeply introspective to richly orchestrated and lifting to the spirit. Jackie's new album SOMEDAY is the long awaited follow up to "Run" her very successful debut release, which received considerable attention from radio and media. Mastered at The Lodge by Emily Lazar (David Bowie, Beyonce Knowles, Natalie Merchant), SOMEDAY features Jackie's smooth vocals and rich musicianship on eight new tracks ranging from the upbeat ("Tell me", "My Heart") to the captivating ("Someday", "You Make it OK", "Daddy I Do"). A veteran of live performance, Jackie is capable of becoming one with the audience giving you a feeling that you're one of her long lost friends. Jackie has been a featured Artist of the Month at GoGirlsMusic.com, Femmusicand receives constant attention as a featured artist on the WomenofMP3.com. Her previous album "Run" was distributed by Red Eye Distribution and was available at all Borders Books, Tower Records and Mediaplay outlets. Jackie will be touring the Northeast in support of SOMEDAY along with Luis Rivera on Bass and Steve Cioppa on Percussion. Jackie is available for booking by contacting her directly.
