Acoustic duo, just two voices and two guitars. Peter Tork (late of the Monkees) and James Lee Stanley (late of Star Trek Deep Space Nine) melodic, harmonies reminiscent of the Everly Brothers. Great songs. 11 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, POP: Folk Pop Details: After producing Peter Tork's first solo CD, he and James Lee Stanley decided to do a little acoustic tour, just the two of them. One set by James, one by Peter and a few songs together. The chemistry and the music and the demand for them together became so strong, they recorded the now legendary Two Man Band. This is the follow up CD to Two Man Band, entitled Once Again. It's just James Lee and Peter and their guitars and remarkable vocal blend. And the songs are either wonderful original compositions or re arranged covers of some of their favorite songs.
