Details: JOHNNY GUITAR BIOGRAPHY/PRESS RELEASE Johnny Guitar was born in the winter of 1963. By the age of nine (9) he was on his way home from Brian Guitars with his first natural wood Fender Stratocaster. He, like many before him, practiced for hours on end, sometimes falling asleep with his guitar his lap. John quickly learned the necessary chords, licks and tricks and was well on his way to his first musical endeavor, a pile of Marshall cabinets on his parents front porch, working the music of Jimi Hendrix: Foxy Lady, Purple Haze, Manic Depression and I'm sure his neighbors favorite song, The Star Spangled Banner. Now, four (4) albums later and with a few music videos under his belt along with his brand new video WEAR THIS RING FOREVER, from his newest release Johnny Guitar - Rolling Down 95. Johnny Guitar has emerged a well crafted singer, songwriter, producer reeking with catchy, pop, rock, country tunes that leaves you begging for more. The songs have a steady commercial drive with the tones of Bon Jovi, Rascal Flatts, Sugarland and the all powerful Led Zeppelin. Those who know Johnny Guitar best will tell ya, give this guy an acoustic guitar, a beer, one hour, and he will emerge from his living room with a hit song, everyones part worked out, background vocals included. Hell record it that same week while its fresh, and, have that song charted on radio by the end of the month. See, hear and purchase Johns music right now right here...
