Catchy and sincere autistic-pop tunes from someone who wishes he had sexy French eyebrows. 11 MP3 Songs POP: Quirky, FOLK: Children's Folk Details: Some people are very self conscious about their looks, their talents, their odor etc. The voice of Jusstafriend (who claims to be somewhat autistic) just wishes he had good pair of eyebrows. He seems to be convinced that if he only had nice dark, attractive eyebrows then everything else in his life would fall into place. The problem is that he is of Finnish descent and his eyebrows are so fair as to be well nigh invisible. He could paint them on - but the ladies would know and no woman wants a man without eyebrows...so he believes. Perhaps he is simply using his lack of eyebrow follicles as a scapegoat for his lack of intrepidity in the area of courtship. But whether he is feeling sorry for himself, envious of the "Loveable Guy" or content and contemplative about his favorite French subjects - he is a good sport about it all...most of the time.
