She has also just been awarded a contract to play in the worlds finest hotel in Hong Kong from September til years end. Here are some reviews of her second cd And to think that because of some silly heart condition of mine Ive recently acquired, I might have missed reviewing the towering talents of our northern neighbor - Canadas own jazz chanteuse Karen Manion. A true master of our beloved American Songbook, Karen brings individuality to the pop-jazz vocal style, polishing her phrasing to perfection, while at the same time delivering a vocal knockout punch to us her listeners! Karen her fine quintet are worth searching out for their challenging song choices, ingenious musical interplay, and last, the highest standard of performance." George W. Carroll, The Musicians' Ombudsman jazzpromo.com "The group kicks and jazz singer Karen delivers her vocalise with a panache that is subtle, creative, defined, rich, imaginative crafty. All blended nicely within a luxuriant palette of musical taste. Great stuff Karen Manion Jazz!. George W. Carroll, The Musicians' Ombudsman jazzpromo.com This Toronto jazz singer has just released her 9 track debut CD entitled, "Yours in Song" - all beautifully performed by Karen. Atlantic Seabreeze gives this fine CD a 5+ rating out of 5 stars! Karen's velvet voice will certainly give jazz music lovers something new in their collection and after hearing her music, they will want to attend one of her extraordinary concerts. John Gavin, Promoter, Atlantic Seabreeze AtlanticSeabreeze.com Manion is both innocent and sexy, cool and sultry. A very promising debut and it'll be interesting to see where Karen goes from here." Martin Levin, Canada's National Newspaper for Professional Women womanspost.ca
