Eclectic, funny, serious, folk/pop and folk blues songs of substance 10 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, EASY LISTENING: Mature Details: Native New Yorker Laura Warfield writes (and co-writes) the songs that range from folk/rock to country/ blues, pop and children's music as the spirit moves her. Her topics are wide ranging, from love rejected ("Leave Your Love Behind") to love renewed ("Get Closer"), from what passes for the economy ("Unemployment Line") to women's issues ("Lord Have Mercy"), from the pitfalls of seeking for the truth ("Turn Around, Spin Around") to those of overcoming prejudice ("Live In My World") and the possibilities of bringing peace to the world "New Millenium." The songs with more than a touch of rueful humor, along with memorable melody, rhythm and rhyme, run through their repertoire. As Laura says in "Turn Around, Spin Around" "You panhandle smiles till after a while you even beguile yourself.". "Catchy captivating" Sing-Out Magazine "Excellent harmonies accompaniment make it into amazing music" Roger Nupie, Nina Simon Society "Good poetry in those lyrics" Mary Travers "A feminist with a passion for writing songs that bring people to their feet" Community Voice "Warfield writes from the heart with a good bit of magical humor" Victory Review
