Details: This is not Myra Pearce's first rodeo. This is however the record that will set her apart and solidify who she is. Her music, her lyrics are real, her vocals are along the lines of golden. A real cowgirl, who raises colts on a ranch in Idaho, who once held the title of Miss Rodeo Washington. She was raised on a ranch, practically born in a saddle, so know before you even listen to the first note, your going to get the real stuff, no fluff here. She has been described as a "Western Connie Smith" enough so, that Connie Smith herself has noticed and paid close attention to what she has done on this record, "The Ghosts Of Yellowstone." Myra lives in Montana where it is easy to get in tune with the Cowboy Western Way of Life. Maybe that is what makes her unafraid to take the bull by the horns when it comes to her music, her life. She makes decisions and never looks back. When you listen to this record several things happen. You are pleasantly surprised when you hear Country Western with no pop influence. You become emerged in the music. You find yourself wanting to hear different tracks again and again. Then she hits you with an old Jim Reeves cover that just blows the competition away. At the end, you find yourself thankful that you found her, that you found her music. You become thankful that a woman like Myra had the nerve to cut a record for the public that is real, a record that FM radio would never play, because it is so real. There is good news in regards as to who will play her. XM satellite Radio Channel 10 America will play her style of music. When Country Dan on XM heard the project he flipped. He said, "don't tell her but I think I have fallen in love with her." She has that affect on those she meets. If she doesn't get ya with her sexy smile or eyes, then the music will. Either way, she is a God send and I thank God he gave her to us. It all boils down to this. God gives certain people certain talents. Some he pours out extra measures for certain things he wants done in this world. He will provide an avenue for that if we are patient. Though FM radio does not describe to good music and is more about money, than the music and people, God will find a way to make it happen. So what happened? XM Radio was born. There were too many Myra Pearces and other acts he had waiting to bring out to depend on FM. "The Ghosts Of Yellowstone" will be a record to stand the test of time. If your looking for golden, strong, emotional, truthful, ride hard cowgirl music, if your looking for a woman, not a kid, than saddle up with Myra. She will take you on a journey you will never forget. I've already been, and I like to take the ride every chance I get. Royal Wade Kimes
