Breathe the maxi-single has lined up 5 hot mixes for your listening pleasure from Smooth R&B and Urban to Neo-Soul and Hot Dance Club mixes. The first three mixes on the maxi-single, Breathe Inhale-Exhale Radio Edit, Breathe Radio / Album Version and Breathe Inhale-Exhale The SoulSkool Mix are geared toward the Urban, R&B, Urban AC and Pop markets; while Breathe Nix 4-on-the-Flo Dance Mix and Breathe Subject13 DnB London Underground Mix is for the Dance and Club formats. This single hits at a time when Nikkole is enjoying the success of the Norman Brown album, Stay With Me which includes the radio friendly song, You Keep Lifting Me Higher, in which the lyrics, melody and vocal arrangement were written by Nikkole whose vocals are also featured on the song. Breathe is taken from Nikkoles critically acclaimed album, A Girl Like Me, which also spawned Its Too Late featuring The Emotions and Gon Bounce both singles were well received in the U.S., Europe, Asia and Australia. The lyrics, melody and vocal arrangement for Breathe were written and co-produced by Nikkole. Lloyd Dub LT Tolbert also served as producer on the track. In fact, Nikkole wrote and produced the entire track for Breathe Nix 4-on-the-Flo Dance Mix. She looked to the European scene for the DnB mix of Breathe, which is Breathe Subject13 DnB London Underground Mix. This track was actually cut in London by DnB mastermind, Dave Stewart a.k.a. Subject13. The executive producers on the maxi-single are Ken Yasuda, Nikkole and Wallace Hall. Nikkole has recently appeared in Ebony, Billboard and BRE Magazines! She is a vibrant and universal
