Ive been a musician/ singer/songwriter for many years. Having been a teacher and a parent for a long time, I feel a time has come where I am able to put a greater focus on singing, songwriting and recording. Who I am Im a singer/ songwriter/ musician. My primary instruments are the guitar and hammered dulcimer. I combine the two instruments in my performances. The songs I write are largely introspective, spiritual, or humorous. My songs often are heavy on imagery. I enjoy sharing thoughts and ideas that often seem to be avoided in popular music venues.
