Edgy but smooth, relaxed but frantic; his melody will definitely treat classical R&B lovers to a form of music that will remind them of their childhood memories of yesteryear when innocence was bliss. 12 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: Rhythm Blues, URBAN/R&B: Soul Details: Rondell Greene born in Racine, Wisconsin on February 6, 1987. He was surrounded by music at a very young age. With his mother's influence as a gospel singer, he learned to sing with the emotion and spirit that captures your attention. From his father's influence as an R&B musician, he learned to sing with the rhythm and soul of an R&B artist. Besides being inspired by his parents, he also gets inspiration from artists like Stevie Wonder, Michael Jackson, Marvin Gaye and R. Kelly. Rondell started his music career in the family group "Level 3." The group started singing in church with their mother in the early 90's as choir members and family members. The group consisted of his two brothers and twin sister. During his time with the group, they appeared in the Guy Black Annual Talent Search and won at the Indiana Black Expo, both based in Indianapolis, which was sponsored by BET in 1997. They also opened for notable acts such as Joe, Monifa and Seduce. They also performed at a benefit for Mayor Trobaugh of Kokomo, Indiana in conjunction with United Way. At the age of 17, he decided it was time to venture out and begin his solo career. It was time to become "R.G." On his journey to becoming a solo artist, he has developed his own style that has turned out to be a lovely sound. Edgy but smooth, relaxed but frantic; his melody will definitely treat classical R&B lovers to a form of music that will remind them of their childhood memories of yesteryear when innocence was bliss. His first solo project proves that R.G. is truly "The New Generation" to say the least. "My music is definitely very smooth and classical, but, man, I can get freaky for my listeners." The single "Fast Or Slow" has a sexy, hip-hop sound that surely draws contemporary R&B lovers. "Tonight" is one of the top singles on the album that gives you a glimpse into R.G.'s extraordinary songwriting skills. The album is a surefire R&B classic. Now, R.G. is poised to follow in the footsteps of fellow pop superstarts Michael Jackson and Babyface. "I know my time is now. I am ready. The pressure is there for me to succeed, but I use that as fuel to grow. I want to be in this business. My goal is to make good records and be among the best." R.G. possesses an extraordinary voice and great ambition to become one of the top artists in today's music industry.
