Juju Bone says: "philosophical rock/slang/twang/fang and poontang. Morrison, Johnny Cash and Iggy share mushrooms and mucho Mexican beer. Wicked and loving. Not for pussies." 8 MP3 Songs ROCK: Americana, SPOKEN WORD: With Music Details: the Michael Ray Cain Reckoning.....midwestern, chicago/milwaukee area band members (except for the one from L.A and the one from Mexicali) who up until now have spent a good deal of time playing in the shadows - the kind that only dimly-lit, urine-scented dive bars can provide....but hell, some remarkably memorable moments that will never happen again....and isn't that what makes it all worthwhile?.....well, isn't it?.....a previous incarnation of the band dissolved as this cd was being recorded due to many factors which included some jailtime, so i kinda had to finish it myself, ya know? this new line-up, though visited by demons nightly (who are pretty cool to hang w/, but ya have to practice, right?), has stimulated me, to say the least, and if they stick around long enough to do a 2nd cd i guess i'll have to tell ya more about 'em.....but for now, just let me say - we've all had some pretty strange journeys, and the fact that those journeys have led us all here to this one place w/ all this smoke in the air makes it feel like it's the only way it coulda happened.....or maybe it's just all the smoke in the air.....we're gonna ride it for a while and see.....michael ray cain
