Gospel, Inspiration and contemporary gospel 13 MP3 Songs SPIRITUAL: Contemporary Gospel, URBAN/R&B: R&B Pop Crossover Details: Creative, Talented and Charismatic are just a few words to describe this young force in the field of entertainment. Born and raised in Lake Charles, Louisiana, tracy's music and entertainment career has spanned over fifteen plus years of hard work and determination. Following a call from God, his unique talent was that he never aspired to become a singer, composer or the young executive that he is today. He is constantly reinventing his musical franchise. He set out to becoming an electrical engineer, but as fate had it, tracy randall saw that there was another calling in-store for him instead and that was one word MUSIC. His vast love for music is very diverse. Influenced at an early age by the legendary genius of Stevie Wonder, Donny Hathaway, Peabo Bryson and Glen Jones just to name a few. tracy took a leap of faith and followed the desires of his heart. Opposed to becoming that electrical engineer, he opted for a career in entertainment. He engineered a major recording contract with T neck/Island Black Music in October 1996. "Now I just want to create great music and bring people closer to God and give them hope and direction for their life. I feel that it is part of the reason for my journey while Im here on this earth," says randall. With the shuffling of labels in 1999, the Polygram/Universal merger prompted this great talent to search for another recording home. He has packed a new record deal with Lavish Records, LLC and partnered with Corner Boyz Worldwide, LLC to executive produce along with Alex Bruh Brown, Rodney Baby Stone Jones, and Christopher Jarloose Todd to distribute his own musical projects. The first single released entitled Sinners Have Souls Too from his new CD entitled Sinners Have Souls Too, is scheduled for release on June 26th, 2007 and already has received praise from radio and retail, attracting both secular and Christian audiences alike. "Music is an expression of love," states randall God is of unconditional love and I just came to Him as I am--- a liar, a cheat, a sinner and He accepted me when everyone else turned their backs. Perhaps its his keen sense of melody and harmony, or maybe the way he delivers a lyric, no matter, tracy randall and music are congruent, synonymous and certainly, unbreachable. Along with his constant travels, he also use his educational expertise and sharp knowledge of the entertainment music business to run his own label, direct and manage the careers of other talented artists, multi-platinum producers, professional athletes, and songwriters signed under his umbrella. A new label, a fresh direction, a renewed focus and unrelenting dedication. tracy randall is out to bring more people to JESUS!
