Modern, cutting-edge praise and worship music for a new generation of worshippers 10 MP3 Songs
GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, POP: Today's Top 40 Details: Born and raised in West Michigan, Trent Walker has been the Music Pastor of Washington Community Church in Alexandria, Virginia (minutes from Washington, DC) for the past five years. This project reflects the worship environment of that church. Trent graduated Christ for the Nations Bible Institute in 2001 and has been part of other recording projects in Michigan and in Dallas, Texas. "The Life That Never Ends" is a passionate cry out to the Heart of God and the theme of this album is about the desire to be with Jesus and truly know him. Trent writes the songs from the perspective of a seeker and brings the listener into the reality of God's redemptive work through every lyric. Siobhan Walker (Trent's wife) is featured in the album as well, and takes the lead on songs like "Tis So Sweet" and "I Trust in You". The album is filled with stylistic variety while maintaining it's authenticity towards worship. This is a great album to incorporate in anyone's daily walk with Christ.
