Do You Sign Up to Many Affiliate Programs... It's tough enough keeping track of commissions from selling other peoples products but having to login to each and every one of them just to review stats can be pain in the behind. I couldn't tell you how many times I've forgotten to login to a membership site to download the latest monthly product, only to realize I've missed one or worse "two" months. Now that is upsetting and if they remove the products of the previous month, that's wasted money. With Login Manager Pro, when I see all the affiliate and membership sites that I belong to right there starring me right in the face, It makes it so much easier to just click and in, download or check commissions earned.
