Welcome to Talisman Bay, where all hell breaks loose on a daily basis, especially when you fall in love. Book one in the Talisman Bay series. For twelve years Stephan Rashleigh has lived in the shadows, patrolling the city streets as leader of the Talisman Bay Shadow Walkers. The danger of his world leaves no room for a woman in his life. Until now. It should have been easy to rescue Mariah, then let her go. Except once she's in his arms, he can't walk away. Vibrant, breathing life into him, she makes him feel again. Mariah DeSilva isn't interested in falling in love, even with the gorgeous hero who rescued her from a brutal attack. When her best friend is kidnapped, she turns to the only man she can trust to help. The more time she spends with Stephan, the less she can hide her growing feelings for him. There's so much more between them than an explosive romp between the sheets, against the wall and everywhere in between. As they search for Mariah's missing friend, a sinister evil is revealed, someone who's been watching, waiting for Stephan to reveal his greatest vulnerability: falling in love. This enemy will stop at nothing to wipe out the Shadow Walkers and claim Mariah for his own. This book has been previously published but was revised and re-edited for Samhain Publishing.
