A performer with a candy box full of styles, Carey Kotsionis possesses a vocabulary of songwriting from another era. Mixing jazz, blues, country, and pop, Kotsionis creates a sound woven together by her dynamite voice. After going solo from Nashville darling duo, The Sways, and having supported Bobby Bare Jr's, "Young Criminals Starvation League", Kotsionis ventured into the studio during summer of 2003, cranking out material for a full length, solo project. "The Magic Cowboy Boots EP" is a sampler of recordings not appearing on the upcoming album. Kotsionis' chameleon like ability is apparent and the accompanying production follows suit, ranging from orchestrated lounge arrangement to lo-fi, live to four track country ballad. Currently supporting B.B. Jr's "Young Criminals" on the road, Kotsionis is performing across North America this fall and finishes production on the full length this winter. Check out "The Magic Cowboy Boots EP" and keep your ears out for more from this lovely and powerful voice.
