Eclectic mix of rhythmic music, intelligent lyrics, rich, sensual vocals - jazz, r&b, latin, country-blues, rock, with a celtic twist. 10 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Jazz Vocals, POP: British Pop Details: A deep love for music, God, nature and the sea is the defining force in all that Deborah Sprout has done and been her entire life. Since her early childhood years, she has had an uncanny affinity with all of creation and a gift for expressing her feelings through music. Studying Creative Writing and music during her teen years and beyond, combined with exposure to an incredibly eclectic array of musical styles and artists - from Classical to Latin and Jazz, from old-school Country and Blues to Folk and Celtic, and everything in between, Deborah has gathered fuel and inspiration to become an impressively diverse writer of intelligent, soulful songs. With thought-provoking lyrics and a smooth, sensual singing style, she captivates even the most cynical of listeners. Deborah has performed in numerous east coast venues. Her performances were well received while on tour in France and Wales during 2005, and her first full-length CD, You'll Just Never Know has been steadily gathering fans in the USA, Europe and the UK. This CD is a lovely, moody collection of deeply touching songs that are great for serious listening as well as rhythmic background music during work projects.
