Details: Piano-pop singer/songwriter Jenny Marlowe started her music career in New Mexico and has now relocated to New York City. Building her local fan base in NM, she played weekly shows at The Martini Grille and The Embassy Suites of Albuquerque. Her music has been featured in two Feature Films, American Meth and Naked Fear. Jenny also recently appeared in a new television pilot featuring her music and band. Her original lyrics all come from personal experience and you'll find that many of her stories are relatable to everyone's path of life. Her lyrics are complemented by her prolific piano playing. Accompanied by her band at many shows, Jenny also performs as a solo artist in more intimate venues. She is inspired by artists such as Nichole Nordeman, Becky Cramer, Missy Higgins, Matt Wertz, Alanis Morissette and Dave Barnes.
