His newest exploration, Warm Human Antennae, zips into a strange world where breakbeats, warm synths, guitar and even the acid bassline find a home... millions of miles away. With some tracks themed on visits to an alien, other world lounge - you can almost see the smoke trails come off the imported cigarettes from planet Earth. Elsewhere, a mixture of ambient guitar noodling drifts into a braindance drum kit jumble, where vocal snips fade into a multi-colored blend of sound. This project was started and completed in 2004... and released in 2005. Rusuden selected Discography: FORMULAE REMIXES - CD (Terminal Dusk 2005), SKAM CATS - 2CD comp (Skam 2005), FORMULAE - CD (Sonicterror 2003), PARCINX MIND 12" EP (Sonicterror 2002)
